Dear Ms. Boxley,

We corresponded via email in August and I am following up with you to request permission from the State of South Dakota to hold a benefit raffle of a custom guitar that will help finance the completion of a home on the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation.

The raffle is being launched using an online service, Raffle Ready, by the Froggy Bottom Guitar company, supplier of the prize, located in Vermont, but all financial transactions will be administered through One Spirit, a 501c3 nonprofit organization registered in South Dakota:

The raffle's completion date will be when 1500 tickets have been sold at $25 each or 6 for $25. Based on a previous raffle with the same arrangements, we expect that all tickets will be sold within 3 months, and the raffle will be initially set up with May 10th as the closing date. If 1500 tickets have not been sold by that date, the raffle will be extended to June 10th, or when 1500 tickets have been sold. There is no real risk of this raffle NOT reaching a sale of 1500 tickets, as Froggy Bottom Guitars are highly regarded and collected. For many years, Michael has chosen one charity per year to donate a custom-made guitar to be raffled off. The Froggy Bottom Website (<http://froggybottomguitars.com>) the One Spirit website (<http://nativeprogress.org/en/>), and the Lakota Tiny House Nation Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/LakotaTinyHouseNation/>) will spread the news of the raffle.

The funds are being used to finance the completion of a tiny home, located in Manderson, SD, that was begun in 2015. The exterior is complete; the interior remains to be finished. All funds will be managed by One Spirit on behalf of our tiny house project.

Thank you for your attention in this matter. We look forward to hearing from you and to launching the raffle as soon as possible.

Sincerely,
